

Fourth Sunday in Kingdomtide, Father's Day

Greetings/Announcements

Prelude

Call to Worship*

Leader Our relationships with our fathers are complicated

People For some of us, our father's love is like God's love -- too deep, too long, too wide, too strong to measure.

Leader Some of our dads are here; some were never here.

People For some of us, God's love fills in the empty spaces our fathers left behind.

Leader All of us are shaped by the relationship or lack of relationship with our fathers.

People On this day when we remember what it means to have a father or be a father, we recognize the importance of fathers in our communities. We pledge as a congregation to love and nurture the fathers among us so that they will manifest the love of God in all that they do.

RESTING AT HOME

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS are due by noon, Tues., email cumc@cumcvb.org. Please limit your announcement to 3 lines and 3 weeks, specifying dates for publication.

POWER POINT REQUESTS - All persons requiring power point presentations, especially for worship services, should submit information to the office by the previous Wed. morning. Questions? Drop us a line at worshipleader@cumcvb.org.

STEPHEN MINISTRY – Do you have a friend, neighbor, or relative who has suffered a loss or is going through a difficult time? Here's a great way you can help them—tell them about our Stephen Ministry! Stephen Ministers are members of our church who have received special training to provide high quality, confidential, one-to-one, Christian care to hurting people. They meet weekly with their care receivers to listen, care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support. It's free and a powerful way you can help a hurting friend. To learn about connecting someone with a Stephen Minister or becoming a Stephen Minister, call Sue Elliker at 575-1749.

PLEASE CHECK bulletin boards, and the website, www.cumcvb.org for the most up to date calendar of events and activities. Or sign up on the website to receive the weekly email updates!
